PARTNERSHIP AND EXHIBITION OPPORTUNITIES

Join us at the ARCS Australia Clinical Summit in Melbourne, Wednesday 4 December 2024, themed Navigating Crossroads: Bridging Clinical Operations and Regulatory Affairs. This summit will bring together industry leaders, regulatory experts, and clinical professionals to explore the intersection of clinical operations and regulatory affairs. As we navigate the evolving landscape of clinical research and healthcare regulation, this event will offer invaluable insights and foster collaboration across these critical fields.

In addition to exploring business acumen, the event will cover key topics such as Trial by Design, Linking NS/ICH-GCP learnings to GCP inspections and the National Statement to GCP Revision 3. We'll also delve into important considerations for devices within the clinical and regulatory framework.

Stay tuned for further details on specific topics and speakers, which will be announced soon.

MEDTECH AND PHARMACEUTICAL SECTOR AWARDS

The Medtech and Pharmaceutical Sector Awards celebrates individuals each year who have made significant contributions to the Medtech and Pharmaceutical sector. Nominees can come from any occupation within the sector, and nominees must be an ARCS Australia member. Members are recognised for their contributions to the profession's advancement, dedicated service, mentorship, strong leadership, or as rising leaders.

These exceptional individuals are eligible to receive the following awards:

- ARCS Excellence Award: The ARCS Excellence Award recognises exemplary professionals in the Medtech and Pharmaceutical sector and is the highest award presented by ARCS.
- Community Leadership Award: The Community Leadership Award recognises ARCS members who have built networks and supported professionals in their communities.
- Rising Star Award: The Rising Star Award recognises promising individuals early in their careers who demonstrate initiative and a passion for strengthening the community.
- Patient-Centred Health Award: The Patient-Centred Health Award recognises groups, organisations, or individuals who have made a significant impact to advance patient-centred policy, product development, or decision-making.
- Article of the Year: The Article of the Year celebrates the most thought-provoking feature article published in ARCS' publications in the past 18 months. This honour is awarded based on the recommendations and judgment of an expert panel of ARCS volunteer authors.
- Interest Area Webinar of the Year Award: recognises the ARCS interest area webinar that achieved the highest attendance over the past year. This award celebrates the efforts of the interest area conveners in organising, promoting, delivering valuable and engaging content to the ARCS community.

More information about the awards and how to nominate can be found here.

SPONSORSHIP AND EXHIBITION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. All information contained in this sponsorship and exhibition prospectus is current at time of printing.
2. The event is the 2024 ARCS Annual Summit and Dinner in Melbourne.
3. To apply for sponsorship or an exhibition booth/facility at an ARCS Australia event, a signed application form must be submitted to ARCS. Upon acceptance of an application, an invoice for the full sponsorship and/or exhibition space will be issued. Full payment must be made at the time of application and proof provided by way of a bank or remittance advice.
4. Partners will be given first preference of proposed location of signage and/or exhibition booth/facilities after which we will endeavour to process applications in the order in which they are received and allocate locations accordingly.
5. Requests for cancellations of a sponsorship or an exhibition table/facility must be in writing and the following policy will apply: (a) If a request for a cancellation is made 8 weeks or more before the start of the event, the exhibitor's liability will be to forfeit 25% of the cost of the sponsored item or exhibition space; and (b) If a request for a cancellation is made more than 4 but less than 8 weeks before the start of the event, the exhibitor's liability will be to forfeit 50% of the cost of the sponsored item or exhibition space; and (c) If a request for a cancellation is made 4 weeks or less before the start of the event, the exhibitor's liability will be to forfeit 100% of the cost of the sponsored item or exhibition space unless the item or space is re-sold in which case exhibitor or sponsor's liability will be to forfeit 50%, there being no obligation on ARCS Australia to take steps to resell any exhibition booth/facility but it may do so at its discretion.
6. ARCS Australia reserves the right not to accept any application for sponsorship and exhibitions. If an application is unable to be accepted, ARCS Australia will refund payments made as soon as reasonably practicable.
7. The exhibition floor plan is subject to change however if changes occur exhibitors will be notified as soon as reasonably practicable.
8. Conference Exhibitors must adhere to all relevant Privacy Regulations in relation to the collection of personal data from delegates. The purpose for which the data are being collected must be clearly displayed, and the data only used for these purposes. Business cards collected for a prize draw should be used only for this purpose, unless delegates are clearly informed that the cards may be used for follow-up contact.
9. Logo placement and size on all conference literature will be decided by ARCS Australia.
15. All participants in the 2024 ARCS Annual Summit must be officially registered in order to gain access to the conference and exhibition. Registration may be completed through the ARCS website. No other registration platforms will be used during the 2024 ARCS Annual Summit. ARCS Australia reserves the right to decline entry to any individual who is not officially registered to attend.
10. Satchel inserts are limited to a maximum of one A4 or A5 size page. Please contact emacmahon@arcs.com.au if you would like to include a satchel insert.
11. Decoration and theming for the Summit Dinner remains the right and responsibility of ARCS Australia. Complimentary additions may be made by the sponsor, subject to approval by ARCS Australia.
12. Exhibitors must not use pins, staples, screws, nails, bolts, glue or paint on their exhibition display. If damage occurs from the use of any of these products, a repair bill will be sent to the exhibitor for payment.
13. Exhibitors wishing to conduct a trade competition, which involves the chance to win a prize, are required to adhere to all state laws and regulations.
14. Exhibitors must ensure they hold a Public Risk and Property Damage Insurance Policy in respect to its space, in the amount of twenty million dollars (A$20,000,000) for the duration of the conference - including move in/out schedules. Copy of the certificate of currency must be provided to ARCS at the time the balance becomes due and payable which is 4 weeks prior to the event.
15. Exhibitors agree to make good any damage caused by their employees or third parties, or loss of delegate property.
16. Dress Code. The dress code for the summit including all sessions and social functions is smart business casual.
17. Photography/Videography - There will be an ARCS photographer and videographer on site throughout the conference and social functions. As a registered delegate, sponsor, speaker or exhibitor, you acknowledge and consent that during your attendance at the conference, your image or voice may be recorded by the ARCS photographer or videographer. Photos and videos will be the copyright of ARCS and may be distributed or published at the discretion of ARCS. If you do not wish for your image to be used, you are required to notify ARCS in writing at arcs@arcs.com.au prior to the commencement of Day 1 of the conference.
18. All prices exclusive of Goods and Services Tax (GST)
19. ARCS reserves the right to change the venue location and/or postpone the event to a later date. In the event of a venue relocation and/or postponement, purchased tickets for the original venue and date will be valid for the new venue and date unless otherwise notified. Should a venue relocation and/or postponement occur, neither ARCS nor any of its officers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be liable for any direct or indirect loss, liability, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any person.
20. To the maximum extent permitted by law, ARCS is not responsible or liable in negligence, contract, tort or howsoever arising if you or any other person incurs, experiences or suffers an accident, direct or indirect loss including to property or person, damage, fatality, injury, psychological injury, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment, disappointment or health related issue whatsoever whilst in transit to or from the event and/or at the Conference. You fully and finally release and discharge ARCS from any liability, claim, action, right or entitlement whatsoever that you have or may have against us whether known or unknown, accrued, contingent or inchoate arising out of, concerning or relating to the event. Under circumstances where our liability cannot be excluded, liability is limited to the costs of the sponsored item(s) and/or exhibition space. Nothing in these terms and conditions are intended to exclude, restrict or modify any term, condition, warranty, guarantee, right or remedy (including but not limited to a guarantee under the Australian Consumer Law) which cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified.
